

Editorial requirements

Temas Antropológicos. Revista Científica de Investigaciones Regionales is a publication of the Facultad de Ciencias Antropológicas of the Universidad Autónoma de Yucatán (UADY).

It is a six-month periodical publication of Research Articles, Working Papers (Theoretical and Technical Reports) and Bibliographical Reviews, in Social Sciences and Humanities.

Receives original and unpublished collaborations, written in Spanish, that are submitted to academic blind peers' dictum (reviewers); in case of being accepted they will be published after a style-correction process in accordance to the editorial requirements of the Journal. Authors will be informed by e-mail about the status of their collaboration.

The collaborations are accompanied with letters of originality and authorization, the forms are available at: <<http://www.antropologia.uady.mx/revista/formatos.pdf>>; the collaborations also includes author's full name, academic degree and name of the institution where it was obtained, institution or dependency of work, research lines, recent publications (3 maximum), e-mail, and mailing address.

The extension of the collaborations including images and bibliography, are as follows: Research Articles, 20-25 pages; Working Papers, 8-10 pages; and Bibliographical Reviews, 4-6 pages.

Research Articles and Working Papers should be provided with an Abstract of 70-100 words, along with a list of 4-8 Keywords; both in Spanish and English.

Bibliographical Reviews should be from a recently edited book, with no more than two years since the publication. They are submitted by only one author, and with a title that should be different of the title of the reviewed book.

The title of the collaboration (in Spanish and in English) should not exceed 15 words.

The copyright of the submitted papers, belong to the authors, and the rights of edition and publication, to the Journal.

Each issue of the Journal is integrated with the collaborations that had been approved at the edition closure; however, the Journal reserves the right of advancing or postponing the collaboration.

Any matter that is not established here shall be determined by the Journal Editorial Council.

Journal Editorial Council members, reviewers, and authors, receive proving documents of their participation in the Editorial Journal processes.

Journal Editorial Council members receive one copy of each edited issue. Reviewers receive one copy of the issue in which they participated. Authors receive three copies of the issue where the collaboration was published. Co-authors (up to three) will receive two copies of the respective issue.

Collaborations of the same author will not be published in consecutive issues.

All collaborations proposed for publication should be written in 11-point Arial and double spaced in Microsoft Word file; maps, plans, draws, photographs, charts and/or tables should be sent in Excel or JPG files. Collaborations will only be received at the following e-mail address:

temasantropologicos@uady.mx

Bibliography

Books: Author's surname, Author's name (Year of publication), Title of book, Place of publication: Publisher.

Chapters: Author's surname, Author's name (Year of the publication), "Title of chapter", in (Editor/Coordinator) Title of Book, Place of publication: Publisher, Page numbers.

Articles: Author's surname, Author's name (Year of publication), "Title of journal article", in Title of Journal, Volume, Issue, Year, Place of publication, and Publisher of the Journal in case of having it, Page numbers.

Web sites: document data that appears online. <URL> (date of access).

Quotations and Footnotes

The quotations, shorter than five lines, will be included in the text within double quotation marks. Quotations that exceed five lines should be in an indented paragraph, with 10 point font, preceded by colon and separated from the text by a line before and after the quotation.

In-Text Citation: (author's surname, year of publication: page number).

Latin abbreviations should not be used.

Notes should be numbered and presented as footnotes with 9 point font and single spaced.